

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

'SYMBIOSIS' a 2-hr production @ 7pm, April 19/09 Salmar Theatre, Salmon Arm, B.C.

Armed with popcorn we settled in for this vibrant solo performance by Jacquelyn-Rose who is a songwriter, singer and musician, all rolled into one, on a mission.

Jacquelyn-Rose came energetically onto the stage with its simple props. She looked very glamorous in clothing that complimented her neat, trim body and remained very positive and enthusiastic throughout the entire evening.

A number of slides were used to emphasize the setting. Also included in them was an explanation of the title. Symbiosis comes from the Greek word meaning: 'Living together for the mutual benefit of mankind.'

Jacquelyn-Rose played both the keyboard and guitar, and the whole production was definitely felt as coming passionately from the heart.

Her message through song was interspersed with very powerful words that gave everyone either a new perspective on life, or at least a reminder and food for thought.

Our power, especially the power of thought, she emphasized, is very strong, perhaps stronger than we even realize, and because we have free will, each one of us is able to choose how we live our lives. We can live either in fear (which lowers vibrations) or in love. Should we choose to live in love it will lead us towards a
